

But store up for yourselves treasures in heaven, where moth and rust do not destroy, and where thieves do not break in and steal. For where your treasure is, there your heart will be also.
Matthew 6:20-21

The Five P's of Making a Sacrificial Gift

Prayer is where we always start. Is my gift a prayerful gift? Through prayer we seek God's will in our lives. Please pray, "God what gift would be pleasing to You?"

Personal Is my gift a personal gift? Our commitment is not about our gift compared to anyone else's; our commitment is about our response to God's blessing in our lives.

Proportional The value of our gift is not in its quantity but in its quality. Sacrifice means different gifts for different people. Only you and God know the answer to this question: "Is my gift sacrificial for me?"

Pleasing We seek to please God with our offering. Offering is about giving glory to our Maker. Is my gift born of a desire to please God?

Peace When we give a gift born of prayer, rooted in who we are, proportional to God's blessing in our life, with an intent to please God, then we shall know peace in our heart. "Peace that passes all understanding..."

■ What is the purpose of this brochure?

Our church has been greatly blessed by God over the last 20 years. We are privileged to proclaim the gospel from the pulpit and through our ministries in ways that are not common in our community.

The Lord has set before us some of the necessary means to take the next step in doing our part to grow His kingdom. We are calling on His people to sacrificially give to build a new home for ministry.

■ What does it mean when it says, “My Willingness, God’s Sovereign Provision”?

We are asking you to prayerfully consider your giving to this God-honoring project. In order that we may estimate what giving to the campaign might be over the next three years. However, we also know that you can only give what God has given you.

And we recognize that making a commitment to give and later finding yourself in a financial position where you cannot keep the commitment may result in unwarranted guilt.

■ How should I respond?

We ask that you take an account of how the Lord has blessed you and meditate on the fact that you are a steward of all He has given to you. After much prayer and thought, we ask that you tell us here in this brochure what you are willing to give the Building Faith Campaign. Then, we will be praying that God will sovereignly provide so you can give what was your heart’s desire without concern or worry that you may providentially be hindered from reaching your giving goal.
